Using the space below, please write a personal testimony of your faith experience and life journey. Also include, in no more than two sentences, why you would like to be a part of this mission endeavor. Feel free to use a separate paper if necessary.

Have you ever been accused of, or convicted of, a crime or offense? (circle one) YES NO
 If yes, please explain, and what was the outcome?

Have you ever been accused of, or convicted of, sexual misconduct or child abuse?
 (circle one) YES NO
 If yes, please explain, and what was the outcome?

I understand that both my responses to the questions of my conviction history and my references will be checked, and that a background check may be completed upon me. I give VPCC Ministries permission to ask my references specific questions regarding my involvement in sexual misconduct and in child abuse or other personal conduct which would impact my ability to be a positive representative of this ministry. I also give VPCC Ministries permission to do background checks through the national and statewide registries for criminal activity.

Signature _____ Date _____

I understand that if I am hired as a staff member or accepted as a volunteer for the VPCC Ministries Outdoor Ministries program:

1. I will be working under the direction of the CEO, the Camp Director, and possibly other supervisory staff.
2. I will do all I can to carry out and be a support to the mission of the camping program, both well employed and at other times.
3. I will be expected to maintain high physical, moral, and spiritual standards including my online personality, always conscious that my behavior and attitudes have a great impact on the campers and others who look to me as a role model. This is true both while I am at the campsite and while off the grounds. (This includes but is not limited to: use of clean and respectful speech; no smoking, alcohol, or illicit drugs; a demonstration of respect towards others; personal and corporate devotions; and a strong support of the mission and goals of the Outdoors Ministries program).
4. That my employment/volunteering is only for designated dates, that there is no implied continuation of employment/volunteering from one season to the next, and that my employment/volunteering may be terminated based on decisions of the CEO, the Camp Director, the Board of Directors, and/or by my giving two weeks written notice, as further explained in the staff manual.

All information in this application is true and honest to the best of my knowledge.
